2 Purpose of the PAIA Manual

This PAIA Manual is useful for the public to:

- 2.1 The PAIA Manual serves as a public guide to the information held by the organisation and how it can be accessed. It outlines the categories of records available without a formal request, the subjects on which records are maintained, and details of records accessible under other legislation. The manual also provides the official contact details of the Information Officer (IO) and Deputy Information Officer (DIO), who are responsible for assisting the public in exercising their right of access.
- 2.2 The manual further explains how to use the PAIA process and where to obtain the official guide published by the Regulator. It describes whether and how the organisation processes personal information, including the purposes of processing, the categories of data subjects involved, and the recipients (local or international) to whom such information may be supplied. The manual further confirms that appropriate security safeguards are in place to protect the confidentiality, integrity, and availability of personal information.

7 Request Process

- 7.1 An individual who wishes to place a request must comply with all the procedures laid down in PAIA.
- 7.2 The requester must complete Form 1 herein, which is attached hereto and submit it to the IO at the details specified herein.
- 7.3 The prescribed form, as well as payment of a request fee and a deposit (if applicable), must be submitted to the IO at/via the postal or physical address, fax number or email address as is stated herein.
- 7.4 The prescribed form must be completed with enough particularity to enable the IO to determine:
- 7.4.1 The record(s) requested.
 - 7.4.2 The identity of the requester;
 - 7.4.3 What form of access is required, and
 - 7.4.4 The postal address or fax number of the requester.
- 7.5 The requester must state that the records are required for the requester to exercise or protect a right and clearly state what the nature of the right is or to be exercised or protected. An explanation of why the records are requested is required to exercise or protect the right.
- 7.6 The access request will be dealt with within 30 (thirty) days from the date of receipt, unless the requester has set out special grounds that satisfy the IO that the request be dealt with sooner.
- 7.7 The period of 30 (thirty) days may be extended by not more than 30 (thirty) additional days, if the request is for a large quantity of information, or if the request requires a search for information held at another office of the Company and the information cannot be reasonably obtained within 30 (thirty) days. The IO will notify the requester in writing should an extension be necessary.
- 7.8 The IO must communicate a response to the request for access using Form 2 herein. This communication shall inform the requester of:
- 7.8.1 The decision; and
 - 7.8.2 Fees payable.
- 7.9 If the IO believes that the searching and preparation of the record for disclosure would amount to more than six (6) hours, he/she shall inform the requester to pay a deposit not exceeding one third of the amount payable.

7.10 Should the requester have any difficulty with the form or the process laid out herein, the requester should contact the IO for assistance.

7.11 An oral request can be made to the IO should the requester be unable to complete the form due to illiteracy or a disability. The IO will then complete the form on behalf of the requestor and provide a copy of the form to the requestor.

7.12 Form 4 herein (Request for Correction or Deletion) is used by a data subject to request the correction of inaccurate, outdated, incomplete, irrelevant, or misleading personal information, and/or the deletion or destruction of personal information that is no longer necessary or unlawfully obtained, in accordance with Section 24(1) of POPIA. It ensures that the Company maintain accurate and lawful records of personal data.

8 Grounds for Refusal

The following are grounds upon which the Company may, subject to the exceptions in chapter 4 of PAIA, refuse a request for access in accordance with chapter 4 of PAIA:

8.1 Mandatory protection of the privacy of a third party who is a natural person, including a deceased person, where such disclosure of personal information would be unreasonable.

8.2 Mandatory protection of the commercial information of a third party, if the records contain:

8.2.1 Trade secrets of that third party;

8.2.2 Financial, commercial, scientific or technical information of the third party, the disclosure of which could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of that third party; and/or

8.2.3 Information disclosed in confidence by a third party to the Company, the disclosure of which could put that third party at a disadvantage in contractual or other negotiations or prejudice the third party in commercial competition.

8.3 Mandatory protection of confidential information of third parties if it is protected in terms of any agreement.

8.4 Mandatory protection of the safety of individuals and the protection of property.

8.5 Mandatory protection of records that would be regarded as privileged in legal proceedings.

8.6 Protection of the commercial information of the Company, which may include:

8.6.1 Trade secrets;

8.6.2 Financial/commercial, scientific or technical information, the disclosure of which could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of the Company;

8.6.3 Information which, if disclosed, could put the Company at a disadvantage in contractual or other negotiations or prejudice the Company in commercial competition; and/or

8.6.4 Computer programs which are owned by the Company, and which are protected by copyright and intellectual property laws.

8.7 Research information of the Company or a third party, if such disclosure would place the research or the researcher at a serious disadvantage.

8.8 Requests for records that are clearly frivolous or vexatious, or which involve an unreasonable diversion of resources.

9 Remedies Should a Request be Refused

9.1 If the Company does not have an internal appeal procedure in light of a denial of a request, decisions made by the IO are final.

9.2 The requester may, in accordance with sections 56(3) (c) and 78 of PAIA, apply to a court for relief within 180 (one-hundred-and-eighty) days of notification of the decision for appropriate relief.
